

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Dr. Pawan K. Aggarwal is a Professor at the National Institute of Public Finance and Policy. He has been engaged in research in the areas of public finance for more than 25 years. He is among those who have advocated and persuaded the states in India to adopt Value Added Tax. He has authored and co-authored various studies in the areas of income tax, VAT/ sales tax, MODVAT/ CENVAT, customs duty, and fiscal federalism, and contributed several articles to national and international journals of repute. His recent publications include: Primer on Value Added Tax; Who Pays the Tax: Incidence of Indirect Taxes; Reform of Domestic Trade Taxes: Issues and Options; and Revenue Implications of Alternative VAT Rates and Derivation of Revenue Neutral Rates. He has served as consultant, member, and adviser in various expert committees and organisations in India and abroad including the World Bank.

V. Selvaraju is an Economist at the National Institute of Public Finance and Policy. He has been working on state finances, public financing of the health sector, and related issues. He has published research papers in academic journals and co-authored a publication on health care expenditure in India.

ABOUT THE BOOK

The study attempts to investigate the implications of the tax system on the competitiveness of domestic producers in the domestic as well as international markets.

ISBN : 81-88035-00-9

Price : Rs. 200/- US $ 12